Mission to Seafarers are seeking donations to cover transportation costs for this summer. Their 1981 van has been out of commission since May 2014. They have been using a rented van over the summer which will end up costing about $4500. They are currently awaiting a response to an application (submitted in May) for a grant to replace the van. Please see the letter on the bulletin board for more details.

Lending Library - Check out the books in our new library in Langworthy Hall. Feel free to borrow any you would like to read or bring in some of your own that you've already read as a swap.

Volunteer help is needed for a young mother with MS who requires someone to spend time with her children, ages 3 & 6, on Wed. & Thurs afternoons until school begins, simply to give her time to rest. This is in the Current River area. If this ministry interests you, please contact Paul Jensen, Pastor of the Evangelical Free Church, at 630 - 2025.

Please check out the bulletin board to read a Statement from Muslim Leaders in Manitoba. We are asked to continue to pray for the situation in Iraq.`

Donations of food items are needed for the AIDS Committee Thunder Bay - Mothers' Cupboard container at the back of the church.
